

LOCAL WAR NOTES

800 jackies left for Atlantic coast.
341 men enlisted in Chicago yesterday.

Home guard of 1,000 enrolled in Wilmette.

G. A. R. given reserved seats at Roosevelt meeting.

Leander J. McCormick turned yacht over to government.

400 Chicagoans given commissions in officers' reserve corps.

Forty Chicago industrial plants placed at disposal of government.

Western Advertising ass'n and public library will aid Red Cross work.

Wilson cheered for five minutes at meeting of Woodlawn Business Men's ass'n.

Deputy Comptroller Gosselin decided city has no authority to pay employes who enlist.

Capt. Wm. A. Moffett, commandant Great Lakes Training station, ordered to Washington.

Chas. T. Meckler, Edison Park, who sent threat to Wilson, confined in Elgin State asylum.

I. W. Savaleff, Russian mining expert, now in Chicago, says Russia will continue in world war.

Corporal Hoonaby, Third infantry, injured in fight with Mexicans in East Chicago who insulted flag.

Illinois Elks have decided to call off state convention this summer, but will raise $30,000 war relief fund instead.

State Food Com'r Matthews says farmers would be able to produce more if banks would advance them money.

Harry C. Avery, Board of Trade press censor, says he believes cost of living has reached limit and will soon decline.

Miss Laurentia Molloy, clerk in election commissioners' office, has agreed to "mother" homeless army "rookie."

Wm. Legner, pres. Chicago Brewers' ass'n, says breweries use less than 1 per cent of nation's grain in making beer.

Young co-eds at Univ. of Chicago who wished to be war nurses not so enthusiastic after they watched vivisection in clinic.

Anthony Schram, who lost job at American Hide & Leather Co. because he put U. S. flag on work bench, taken back to work.

Col. Roosevelt will arrive at the Union station at 9:40 a. m. tomorrow. Will be escorted by marines and militia to Blackstone hotel.

C. Drzewski and John Woodridge, Wilmette, local members of Canadian army, killed "somewhere in France." A. M. Black, 3425 W. 63d, wounded

RUSSIANS TIGHTEN BONDS WITH ENTENTE ALLIES.

Copenhagen, April 27.—Far from being affected by tremendous and insidious Germanic pressure for separate peace, Russia's ties with entente allies are slowly strengthening, according to information reaching here today through diplomatic channels.

Russian army has re-pledged itself to war. Back in early revolutionary days it was known here that large percentage of those in Russian army supported war policy on promise that they would not themselves be sent to the front.

DR. ROSS FINED ON YOUNG GIRLS' STORIES.

Dr. Frank Ross, dentist, 322 S. State, was fined $50 and costs in each of two cases brought against him by Kitty Seysdal, 16, 55 W. Erie, and Ruth Sensiba, 17, pupil of the Bush Temple Conservatory of Music. The charges grew out of a street flirtation, a joyride and an all-night trip to Milwaukee. His att'y, Clarence Darrow, admitted his client had been with the girls and pleaded leniency on the grounds that unfavorable publicity had caused Ross a serious loss of business.